

Photo Friday – FAVORITE TREES and next week is TREE WEEK!

In our second Photo Friday celebrating fall, we focus on your favorite trees. Thanks to everyone who submitted pictures. Fall is a great time to plant trees and Tree Week is next week. Tree Week (Oct. 10- 17) is a week-long celebration of all the benefits provided by our urban trees and is heavily supported by UK Grounds and other UK units. Check out the calendar of events: <https://ufi.ca.uky.edu/treeweek2020>
