

Photo Friday – Facilities Folks @ Play!

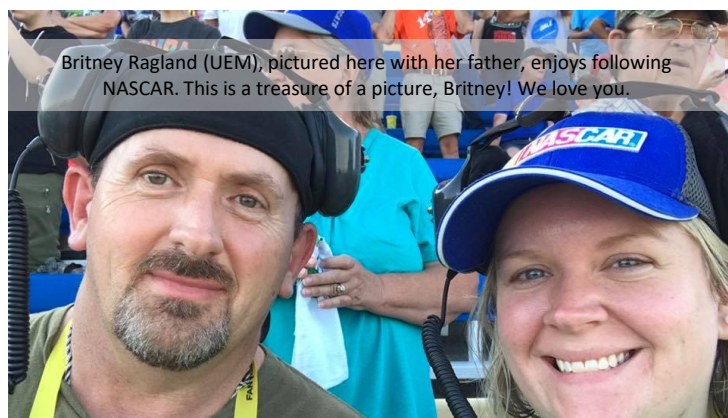

This issue of Photo Friday we asked that you submit photos of what you do when you are not working. We asked for hobbies, projects, pastimes, etc. You delivered! These are certainly troubling times and looking at these photos is a good reminder that we need to take care of ourselves, our families and each other. Be kind and be safe. Thank you for all that you do for our University of Kentucky family. Have a good weekend.
